This week, Vijay Menon is in Stellenbosch. He is a former Hindu who converted to Christianity and has spent a number of years preaching the gospel. Born in India, he has spent much of his life in London (where he still lives) working as an engineer and is now retired. St. Paul's in Stellenbosch is privileged to have him speak there this coming Thursday evening at 19:00 in lieu of the regular student Bible study. The title of his talk the evening is "What God wants most of you". He'll also be giving a special Lunch Time Talk on Thursday afternoon (13:00-13:45) in the Regter Van Zijl Hall in the Neelsie student centre. The title of that talk is "Why I gave up religion".

Personally I'm really amped to hear him speak (having gotten the dates wrong on a couple of occasions before)! Hope to see you there!
